Reason for contracting this specific course, and how it fits with your Honors curriculum and future goals:

Honors contracts require both quantitative and qualitatively more work from the student, usually 10-15% additional effort beyond the standard course requirements, such as additional reading, writing, researching, presenting, etc. (or combination) appropriate to the course. The student and instructor must meet regularly outside of normal class meetings to discuss the Honors work. Ideally, this should be every other week for at least 30 minutes.

Specific schedule of frequent, regular meetings between student and instructor outside of class (required):

Honors Contract Activities: Please specifically describe the extra effort required for the Honors contract 3000-level course. Identify the length of papers, scope of extra projects, etc.:

Literature and/or library research: _____

Laboratory research activities or computational activities: _____

Authorship/co-authorship of a submitted publication: _____

Poster or oral presentation at a departmental gathering, class meeting, or undergraduate research day: _____

Other activities, such as grant writing, service learning, or community-based research: _____

I agree to these Honors Contract requirements. I will inform the Honors College and the History Department Honors Director if I am not able to meet these requirements prior to graduation.
