2009-2010 Requirements for the BS Multidisciplinary degree

The BS Multidisciplinary degree in History is a career-oriented way approach a degree in History. In consultation with their advisor, students create a Career Concentration within their major that will help them prepare for their chosen future career.

In general, the Career Concentration consists of a minimum of 27 semester hours drawn from various departments or disciplines. No Educational courses, including PSY 3000, may count towards the Career Concentration. Only 3 hours of 1000 level courses, chosen from approved list,* may be taken (more hours of foreign languages may count at the discretion of the advisor). At least 15 hours of the Career Concentration must be 3000- or 4000-level courses.

2008-2009 Requirements

36 hours of history distributed as 6 hours each in European, non-Western and US history and 9 hours of other history classes, plus HIS 3000, HIS 4000 and HIS 4100. Career Concentration of 27 hours; only 3 hours of 1000 level courses chosen from the approved list;* at least 15 hours must be at the 3000-4000 level.

Sample Concentrations

The rest of this handout consists of sample Career Concentrations, first for some possible careers in Public History and then for our BS Multidisciplinary majors in general. You need not follow these slavishly, and in fact you can and should develop your own career choices and Career Concentrations to support those choices. The Career Concentrations included here are simply to give you ideas and examples of Career Concentrations that have been successful in the past.
